Public Storage Prices Inaugural Public Offering of Euro-Denominated Senior Notes

GLENDALE, Calif. — Tom Boyle, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Public Storage (NYSE:PSA, the “Company”), announced today that the Company has priced an inaugural public offering of €500 million aggregate principal amount of Senior Notes due 2032 (the “Notes”). The Notes will bear interest at an annual rate of 0.875%, will be issued at 99.502% of par value and will mature on January 24, 2032. Interest on the Notes is payable annually on January 24 of each year, commencing January 24, 2021. The offering is expected to close on January 24, 2020, subject to customary closing conditions. The Company expects to use the net proceeds to make investments in self-storage facilities and in entities that own self-storage facilities, for the development of self-storage facilities, and for general corporate purposes.

J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc, Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC and UBS AG London Branch acted as joint book-running managers of the offering. This announcement shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy these securities nor shall there be any offer or sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful. The offering is being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and only by means of a prospectus and prospectus supplement. Investors may obtain these documents for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. Alternatively, copies of the prospectus and prospectus supplement may be obtained by contacting: J.P.
